

Pocket Aide Memoire to the Sydney ANZAC DAY MARCH

25 Apr 2019

(City of Sydney)

FORM UP: Post WW2 Artillery incl Reserve Associations from 1030 (RSL suggests that this is the start time)

Location: Northern roadway Bent St Sydney (May need adjustment into Phillip St)

Timings: Banners should be in place well before forming up so that members can identify their group.
RAA units will occupy the street behind the Royal Regiment of Australian Artillery Banner ready to follow.

The post-WW2 Artillery contingent will be led by the Royal Regiment of Australian Artillery Banner that will act as a marshalling point for all Gunners.

Groups, 8 abreast, will move along Phillip into Elizabeth St. The Start Point of the march is the corner, Martin Place and Elizabeth St. Then proceed to Liverpool St and follow the marshal's direction for dispersal. The Act of Remembrance will occur adjacent to the ANZAC Memorial.

A map and information can be downloaded from the RSL website:
